Turkey Point, Turkey Point, Ontario

Imagine waking each morning to gentle waves lapping the shore, sunlight dancing across endless water. This is life at Turkey Point, where Lake Erie's northern shore becomes your personal paradise. Nestled in charming Turkey Point, Ontario, this extraordinary property offers the ultimate retreat from everyday life. Here, cozy cottages dot the shoreline, local eateries serve fresh catches, and life moves to the gentle cadence of boats returning to harbor. This peaceful enclave has long been a magnet for those seeking authentic waterfront living, and now it can be yours. Built in 2022 on a tranquil dead-end cul-de-sac, this stunning lake house was designed with one singular vision: to celebrate the magnificent water views that stretch endlessly before you. Every angle, every room, every carefully placed window serves to connect you with the ever-changing beauty of Lake Erie. Step through the front door and be embraced by over 3,800 square feet of thoughtfully designed living space. The modern architecture features soaring windows that frame the water like living artwork, transforming your daily routine into breathtaking moments. The two-story design centers around expansive living areas that dissolve boundaries between indoor and outdoor living. Two great rooms provide multiple gathering spaces, each offering its own unique lake perspective. Whether hosting intimate dinners or grand celebrations, guests will be captivated by the ever-present backdrop of shimmering water. The dual kitchen concept ensures entertaining flows seamlessly. Imagine preparing meals while watching sailboats drift by, or enjoying morning coffee as sunrise paints the water in brilliant hues. An elevator provides effortless access to both levels. Five bedrooms offer peaceful retreats. Three bathrooms provide comfort, while the three-car garage includes upper suite potential. From this vantage point, Lake Erie becomes your playground. Nothing beats life on the water! Luxury Certified. (id:6289)
