King City, King (king City), Ontario

Located in the dynamic core of King City, this rare 75 x 194* ft property backing onto a park presents an exceptional opportunity for developers, investors, and professionals alike. Recently renovated and currently has multiple professional tenants, the building offers approximately 3,100 total sq. ft. of flexible space, including 7+ private offices, a boardroom, reception and foyer areas, two bathrooms, and two kitchenettes. The expansive lot provides parking for 8+ vehicles and features a generous-sized double garage at the rear with loft above, offering significant potential for a variety of uses. Situated just steps from the intersection of Keele Street and King Road, the property yields excellent visibility, signage exposure, and easy access to public transit. With three separate entrances and a basement for additional storage, it accommodates a range of multi-tenant configurations. Free of any heritage designation, this property offers outstanding potential for redevelopment or expansion, including mixed-use commercial and residential projects in King City's rapidly growing core.
