Business

Concord, Vaughan (concord), Ontario

A very profitable and successful business at a great price. In a recession, this business can expect increased sales. The new owner can recover their initial investment very quickly. This is an established business with a client list of happy customers earning many referrals for future customers. Full and comprehensive training and support is included both before you close and after the closing. Training and support will be provided to the new operator to ensure success for the long term. There are many assets included which can help with financing the purchase of this business. Ideal for enterprising entrepreneurs who want to step into a profitable business right away and with excellent growth potential. Only a few employees required to operate within a well prepared system of operations already in place which can be immensely helpful to the new owner/operator. (id:6289)
