This exquisite French chateau-style estate, designed by Gren Weis, is gracefully positioned on a prestigious waterfront parcel with coveted riparian rights, in one of South-East Oakville's most sought-after enclaves. With breathtaking views of Lake Ontario and a rare sense of privacy, this residence offers an unparalleled lifestyle of elegance and tranquility. Masterfully designed to blend classical architecture with modern functionality and refined interiors. From richly detailed millwork, ceiling details, radiant heated flrs to upgraded light fixtures, every finish has been thoughtfully curated to reflect timeless sophistication. Expansive principal rooms with lake vistas provide a stunning backdrop for both grand entertaining and intimate family living. The main level is anchored by a magnificent living room with double French doors that welcome in the lake breeze, a show stopping solarium, formal dining room, a gourmet kitchen with professional appliances, prep kitchen, and sunlit family room with waffle ceilings. The second level features a serene primary suite with spa-inspired ensuite and dressing room, 3 additional bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, and a beautifully appointed library offering sweeping views of the water. The lower level offers exceptional scale and light with full-size windows, radiant floors, a recreation room with wet bar, fitness room with adjacent full bathroom, guest suite with ensuite, and abundant storage ideal for extended family or hosting with ease. Your private garden offers lush, manicured grounds and is framed by the natural beauty of the lake. Multiple walkouts to the yard and easy access to the shoreline make this property a rare offering. Launching your paddle board or canoe couldn't be easier. Just steps to Gairloch Gardens and moments from the boutiques, fine dining, and cultural richness of downtown Oakville, as well as top-tier private and public schools, this estate presents a lifestyle defined by elegance, ease, and enduring value.
