Rural Burlington, Burlington, Ontario

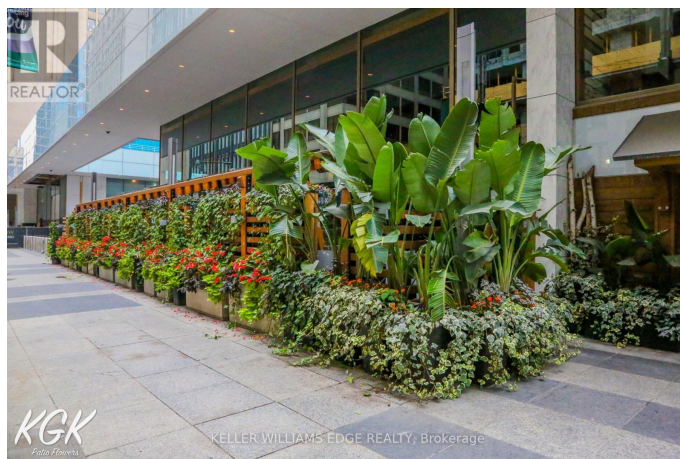

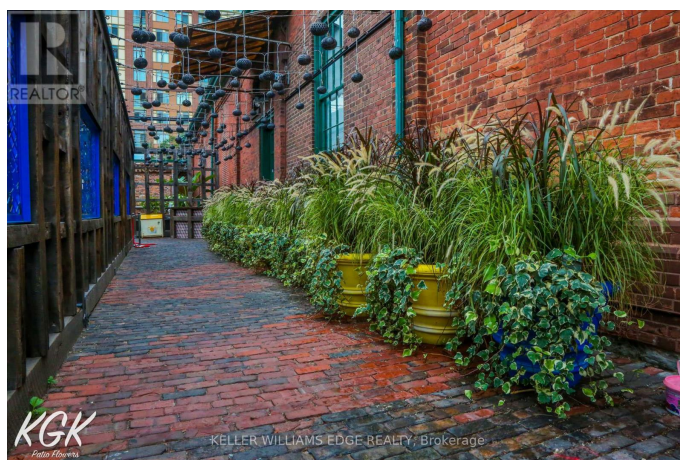

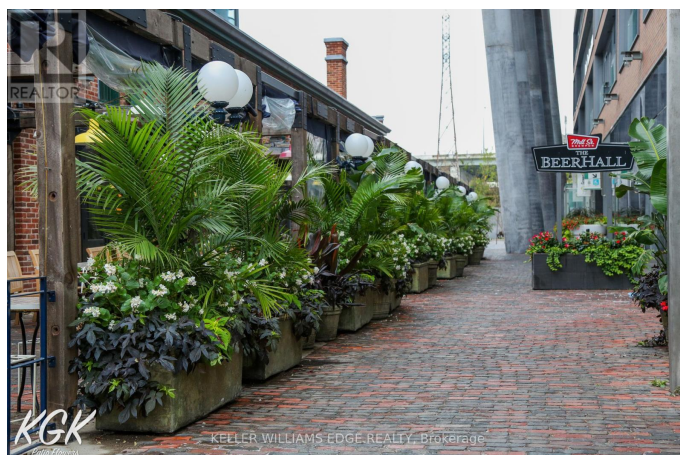

Established over three decades ago, this thriving patio flower business is now available for sale. Specializing in direct-to-business flower planting and service, they have consistently achieved seven-figure earnings annually. The current owner is committed to assisting in a smooth transition by offering invaluable resources, connections, and existing contracts. With the potential for exponential growth and long-standing client relationships already in place, this efficient and well-managed business is primed for continued success. While the owner has never actively pursued new clientele, the opportunity to expand into untapped markets is vast. Don't miss your chance to acquire this turnkey operation from retiring owners. Financial statements are available upon signing a non-disclosure agreement (NDA). (id:6289)
