375 Georgian Bay Water is a beautifully maintained cottage in the legacy Georgian Bay style with contemporary features that make holidaying truly relaxing. Offers unobstructed panoramic southwest views of the bay, the original hardwood floors, high ceilings with the original huge, by modern standards, rough hewn beams. old-style bedrooms, a large screened in porch, perfect for entertaining multitudes that's surrounded on three sides with decks for sun worshippers and barbecuing. It sits on 7.87 acres with 1500 ft of shoreline that bends around the mouth of the Garden Channel, an undisturbed natural paradise for swimming, bird watching or quiet paddling. The contemporary features include, double hung windows; solar panels, backup gas-powered generator, a writers studio by the water. Above all, its private. The cottage is set back from the water on a height of land that allows for its expansive views but close enough to provide easy access to the two new docks. (id:6289)
