St. Marys, St. Marys, Ontario

Exciting opportunity in the heart of downtown St. Marys! This well-maintained, single-story commercial building offers over 1,500 sq. ft. of versatile space. Currently configured as one unit, it features separate hydro meters, allowing for the potential to divide it into two individual spaces to suit a variety of business needs. The building is equipped with a forced air gas furnace, central air, updated finishes, office ice space storage and three washrooms, making it move-in ready for a range of commercial uses. Located on the sunny side of the street between Wellington Street and Church Street, it benefits from strong visibility and pedestrian traffic. Additional features include a rear entrance with ample private parking and exterior access to a full basement, providing ideal space for storage. Whether you're an investor or looking for a home for your own business, this property offers great potential in a prime location.
