A Rare Opportunity on Buck Lake The Original Tober Cottage Welcome to one of Buck Lakes most treasured gems the iconic Tober Cottage, the namesake of Tober Lane and offered for sale for the very first time. Built in 1973 and lovingly maintained by the same family for generations, this quintessential Canadian Shield retreat is steeped in cottage-country charm and ready for its next chapter. Set on over 2 acres with an astounding 750 feet of private waterfront, this three-bedroom, one-bathroom cottage is perched on a scenic, south-facing point just past the narrows on Buck Lakes south branch. Surrounded by mature trees and granite outcroppings, the views here are simply breathtaking. Inside, you'll find 1,000+ sq ft of classic cottage space with a generous living room, separate dining room, full kitchen, and three spacious bedrooms perfect for hosting family and friends. Step outside to discover a charming bunkie with electricity, a dry boathouse with power, a covered deck, and a dock with deep, clean water perfect for swimming and boating. This is cottage life the way it was meant to be private, peaceful, and unforgettable. Whether you're looking to relax, explore, or create new family traditions, this property is a rare find. Legacy cottages like this are seldom offered don't miss your chance to own a piece of Buck Lake history. (id:6289)
