4 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom,
Single Family on 0.00 Acres

Ryerson, Ryerson, Ontario

Upon arriving at Waldheim imagine meandering along your private lane amidst an enchanting forest, dappled with ferns and outcrops of Canadian granite. Embrace an invitation to breathe as you make your way towards the idyllic, fully restored home built circa 1905. Surrounded by 16 acres of prime land with an impressive waterfront, this property offers tranquility and seclusion. Step inside this 4 season, 3 bedroom Lake House, featuring a lovely kitchen/dining area with a gentle transition into the Muskoka room with pristine lake views. High ceilings with thoughtfully placed windows take advantage of the picturesque surroundings. Nestled amongst the great hemlocks of Waldheim on Lake Cecebe, this historical beauty awaits another generation of guardians. Lovingly restored with meticulous authenticity, this gem embodies tradition with modern amenities in all of the 3 primary structures, while maintaining its historical elegance and unique characteristics. This private point boasts a rare 1290ft of perfectly elevated shoreline. Follow a winding garden path to the lakeside guest house offering views across Professors Bay. The lakeside guest cottage is restored with the same care and attention to historical detail, intertwined with a careful blending of the luxury of modern comforts. The spacious living room with its cozy wood stove, main floor washroom and loft bedroom offers a peaceful haven for guests. French doors open to a deck leading to the main dock providing plenty of space to gather. The boat port will accommodate a vessel up to 24ft. Nurture your creativity within the studio built with impeccable craftsmanship, complemented by the warmth of a wood stove. The restored carriage house provides parking for 3 vehicles and is conveniently located close to the main house.Opportunities like this, where heritage meets comfort in total privacy, are truly rare. "My wish is to stay always like this, living quietly in a corner of nature." - Claude Monet (id:6289)
