Single Family on 0.00 Acres

Grey Highlands, Grey Highlands, Ontario

As you step through the front door, a welcoming foyer greets you, and the warmth of the original details invites further exploration. To the right, you'll find the dining room bathed in natural light. The century-home charm is undeniable, with high ceilings, detailed moldings, and original hardwood floors. The living room is expansive, offering endless possibilities. Built-in bookshelves provide the perfect backdrop for a cozy reading nook. The kitchen is a beautiful blend of old and new, featuring plenty of space for casual dining. There's an area for an eat-in kitchen table and a traditional woodstove, adding rustic charm while keeping the home toasty during the winter months. Laundry and a four-piece bath on the main level enhance the home's functionality. Just off the kitchen, you'll find a space that was once used as an office, but it could easily be transformed into a sunroom, den, or art studio and highlighted by its south-facing windows, which frame a lovely view of the backyard. Step outside, and you're in for a treat the patio offers a peaceful retreat for morning coffees, overlooking a picturesque backyard. Located just steps from the main intersection in Markdale, this home is in a prime location. You're within walking distance of essential services like the hospital and shopping. (id:6289)
