Welcome to Wolfe Island, the largest of the world-famous Thousand Islands, perfectly situated where Lake Ontario meets the St. Lawrence River. This exceptional waterfront property offers a rare blend of privacy, natural beauty, and year-round recreation. Wake up to stunning sunrises and end your day with breathtaking sunsets, all from the comfort of your expansive wrap-around deck. Enjoy a private, clean, mixed sand and pebbled beach; perfect for swimming, sunbathing, or launching your next boating or fishing adventure. This well maintained home features 3 spacious bedrooms, a bright and open main floor with new laminate flooring all throughout the home. A large family room complete with a cozy propane fireplace and large floor-to-ceiling windows that flood the space with natural light and showcase spectacular waterfront views. This property also includes a massive 30 by 30 foot secondary garage and shop with 2 large sliding doors, ideal for storing cars, boats, or all those fun filled water toys just steps from your waterfront! Located in the charming town of Marysville, just steps away, you'll find essential services, fabulous local bakeries, original and authentic restaurants, shops, and more. Golf lovers can also tee off at the islands own course, while others can enjoy fishing, water sports, or simply soaking in the serene island lifestyle. Wolfe Island is accessible year-round via ferry from both Canada and the U.S., making it an ideal location for a peaceful escape or a full-time residence. Outdoor enthusiasts will appreciate the islands scenic walking trails, a quiet secluded sand beach, and three designated cycling routes through picturesque countryside. Your peaceful waterfront retreat awaits on Wolfe Island; where natural beauty meets year-round adventure! (id:6289)
